American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of General Washington is the condensed result of long experienced, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings:—the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and a propriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address: & when it shall be compleated, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by MR. AMIES. The INK shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN: and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splended edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splended Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A "Legislator for its Security! A MAGISTRATE for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscsiptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.

For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 12

Baltimore Hospital,

24th August, 1818.

THE board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern projection at its extreme East end. It contains between 30 and 40 apartments, admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients. Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heated air thrown into them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made, for lighting the apartments in the entire building, with gas.

The unwearied exertions of Doctors Mackenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the construction of the building, and their care of the sick, have given a character to this Institution, which is now inferior to none in the United States. In the short space of six years, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that above half a century has been consumed, in bringing the Hospitals of New-York and Philadelphia to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited these Institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive, the whole building being now 360 feet in length.

The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be furnished; and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in.

The visitors at their late meeting, examined the Institution with much care—the apartments of the sick in the private infirmary—those in the lunatick asylum—and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assert with confidence, that the sick and afflicted of every description are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen at their different meetings, the private patient comfortable: the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit, as well to the Director of the Marine Hospital, as to the attending Physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every praise too, which the visitors can bestow, is due to Mr. & Mrs. Gatchel, the Stewart and Matron of the Hospital, for the neat and clean manner in which the House is uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment.

Before they conclude this account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States, to the Anatomical Cabinet of Wax Preparations, by Chiappi, which certainly far surpasses any thing of the kind ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those whose curiosity may lead them to see how "fearfully and wonderfully they are made," but more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information.

The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen:

Doctors Colin Mackenzie } Attending
James Smyth } Physicians.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber's service, on Saturday night the 15th inst. Negro woman TREACE or TREACY—she is five feet two or three inches high, about 30 years of age, of a very dark complexion, and when particularly examined is very apt to confound herself.—It is deemed unnecessary to mention her clothing, as she has all of them with her, and being extremely artful, she no doubt will change them and endeavor to pass for a free woman. She is well acquainted in Charles county, Prince George's, Alexandria and the City, as about 5 years ago she made her escape, and was 6 or 7 months about the Lower Ferry, leading to Alexandria, and from thence to Washington City, where she acquired an extensive acquaintance among the Negroes belonging to John Brent, esq.; and the greater part of said Negroes belong now to William and Rober Brent, esqrs. and Mr. Dudley Diggs. Negro Treace has a scar on the back part of her neck, occasioned by a seaton put for the benefit of her eyes, which are very weak at this time. I will give 10 dollars if taken in the county and secured in jail, or if out of the county and secured as aforesaid, so that I get her again, 25 dollars, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

I WILL give the above reward for apprehending and lodging in any jail in the District of Columbia, a person by the name of JOHN POST, a Bricklayer and Stonemason, who has been at work for about two months past at Fort Washington, and was discharged on the 7th of September inst.—He says he was born in the state of New-York; is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, and has sandy hair; he had with him an apprentice boy, nearly grown. A few days previous to his leaving Fort Washington he took the liberty of borrowing, in the name of Mr. John Cohagen, from a lady at that place 15 dollars, which was not known till after he left it; and immediately after he was discharged and paid off, he forged two checks in the name of the Subscriber, on the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, one of which he procured the money for at the Bank, and the other he passed to a person in Alexandria, which was detected and refused.—Previous to his coming to Fort Washington, he worked in the City of Washington, where he said he intended to work again; but it is probable he has not stopped so near the theatre of his villany.

Persons are cautioned against being imposed on by him. BOLIVHA LAWS.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE
AND DAILY ADVERTISER.
PUBLISHED BY
SAMUEL SNOWDEN,
ROYAL-STREET.
Daily Gazette, 7 dolls...Country, 5 dolls.
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1818.

Original Poetry.

MR. SNOWDEN,

The following Pindaric ode was occasioned by reading the toasts drunk at the public dinner given to Mr. C——, soon after his return to Kentucky. Whether at this late day, it is worthy a place in your paper, is submitted to you.

JONATHAN refuseth to bend the knee to a dagon of CLAY, and telleth an impudent story.

"Within all brick-dust,
"And without all brass."

And so, Sir Harry, it would seem that you,
And your "half-horse, half-alligator" crew,
Like dogs with sauce-pans fasten'd to their tails, [ire,
Are yelping, chafing round, red hot with
Because, forsooth, your highness can't aspire
In Mr. Monroe's equi-balanc'd scales.

Pray, sir, your claims?—What have you done so great,
That you should be prime minister of state?
'Tis a high station, man!—When you get there,
You lean upon the presidential chair.

A man at cards may play a decent game,—
May be a stentor on a stump;—nay more,
May love a social glass, nor blush to name
His fond attachment to a w—h or w—re—
May e'en have been a minister at Ghent,
And still not answer for a president.

Why is the pop-gun of thy eloquence,
So often fir'd in southern patriots' cause?
Dost hope to rise, by popular applause,
Above the shoulders of poor common sense?
This may be yours; but, sir, I fear your name [fame.
Would crack the brazen trump of honest

In spite of tears, which flow for "sailors' rights," [nation;
To grease the creaking wheels of declaIn spite of brawling days, carousing nights,
Each one, you know, must fill his proper station.

Did you e'er mark an insect on a spire,
How still it dwindled, as it mounted higher?
Be careful how you clime on honor's steeple,
If you would not disgust the "sovereign people." [cross,
Take warning, sir, ere fate thy purpose
And foes exclaim "Procumbit humi bos."

Your likeness, rob'd in presidental glory,
Perhaps, may best be portray'd by a story.

THE PIG IN THE PARLOUR.

In city, far from this, kept clean and sweet,
As the proud city of the land of bogs,
By four-legg'd scavengers in every street,
Call'd hogs,
That fatten on the filth they find, and then
With pork nutritious fatten aldermen:—

In that great city, what we always meet,
As roam'd a lusty hog, one day,
Rooting and grunting through its proudest
Yclep'd Broadway; [street,
A door wide open met his swinish eye;
And turning up his nose that way, well, well, [ver sty,—
Thought he, that house would make a clever
I'll just walk in the premises to spy:
So in he went, nor stop'd to ring the bell.

As in the wide saloon he look'd about,
And on th' embroider'd carpet rubb'd his snout,
He marvell'd much at every thing he saw,
But grunted curses on such vill'nous straw.

Allur'd by victuals' savory scent,
First to the dining-room he went, [stood:
Where steaming, smoking, the full tables
These, with their dishes, gravies, drinks and food,
By one bold push he tumbled over:
Indeed, thought he, 'tis decent clover,—
There never could be finer prog
To glut the stomach of a hog.

When he had gorg'd his craving appetite,
He left the hall of food, in sorry plight,
And through the parlour, drawing-room, and all
The rich apartments he began to hunt,
With many a heedless, philosophic grunt,
And rubb'd himself against the pictur'd wall.

And every thing he met was rooted o'er,—
Pianoes, pictures, flower-pots, vases,
Chairs, tables, side-boards, books, urns, glasses,—
All, all were thrown in ruins on the floor,—
Demolish'd in his eager haste,
To gratify his swinish taste. [he
Till tir'd with making new arrangements,
Stretch'd his foul sides upon a soft settee.

While he lay snoring there, in slumbers sound,
Miss Abigail, the maid, came in and found
What havoc he had made;—and bellow'd out
"O Lord-a-mercy!—what is this!—O dear!
What topsy-turvy doings have we here!
What mischief you have done with your long snout?"

"No doubt, vile hog, to you 'tis vastly fine,
On victuals cook'd for gentlemen to dine,
And to lie wheezing on our new settee:
No doubt, you think this mighty pretty sport;
But folks live here of quite another sort,
Who will not feel much grac'd to live with thee!"

Maj. for constitution, 1508

The constitution of the young state of Illinois seems to have caught a hint from the times; and to have made several provisions peculiar to itself, on three subjects which have been so lately and vehemently canvassed, to wit, the doctrine of legislative contempts, the right of instruction and Banks, as follows.

"Contempt.—Each house may punish by imprisonment during its session, any person, not a member, who shall be guilty of disrespect to the house, by any disorderly or contemptuous behaviour in their presence: provided such imprisonment shall not at any one time, exceed twenty four hours."

"Right of Instruction.—That the people have a right to assemble in a peaceable and respectable manner to consult for their common good, to instruct their representatives, and to apply to the General Assembly for redress of grievances."

"Banks.—That there shall be no other banks or monied institutions in this state, but those already provided by law, except a state bank and its branches, which may be established and regulated by the General Assembly of the state, as they may think proper." [Richmond Inquirer.

Petersburg, October 9.

THEATRE.—The new Theatre in this town will open on Monday next, with Tobin's popular comedy called the Honey Moon, and the afterpiece of Fortune's Frolick. An ode by M'Creery, "the son of song," will precede the evening's amusement. We have not yet seen the names of those who compose Mr. Caldwell's Corps Dramatique: We cannot, therefore, speak of the FORCE or the CHARACTER of the company, but KNOWING it to be Mr. Caldwell's INTEREST to have an efficient body of histrionic veterans, we PRESUME he has not been unmindful of the first duty of a manager. It will depend on HIM, to what extent the people of Petersburg will afford that encouragement, so absolutely necessary to the complete success of theatrical representations. THEIR liberality is known. It has been tested on too many occasions to be doubted at this day; and it will depend on him alone, whether he rises or falls in his present enterprise.

We make these remarks with no other view than to benefit the manager of the theatre. We admire histrionic representations—we belive them to be susceptible of much public good, when properly conducted, and the selections made with a due regard to their moral tendency.

We can, as yet, receive no certain information as to the extent of our crop; most people expect the wheat to approach nearly an average one.

"A great number of the cotton spinners have returned to their employment, and the raw material is in fair demand; the sales of the last two weeks amount to 23,500 bags. All kinds of naval stores are on the advance, and pot ashes are getting scarce."

In his celebrated letter to Mr. Oswald, one of the English negociators, Dr. Franklin remarks as follows, upon that most odious and detestable system of privateering:

"The practice of robbing merchants on the high seas, "a remnant of the ancient piracy," though it may be accidentally beneficial to particular persons, is far from being profitable to all engaged in it, or to the nation that authorizes it, &c. As is the case in other lotteries, though particular individuals have got prizes, the mass of adventurers are losers, the whole expense of fitting privateers during a war being much greater than the whole amount of goods taken. Then there is the national loss of so many men during the time they have been employed in robbing—who besides spend what they get in riot, drunkenness and debauchery, lose their habits of industry, are rarely fit for any other business after a peace, and serve only to increase the number of "highwaymen and house-breakers." Even the undertakers who are fortunate, are by sudden wealth led into expensive living, the habit of which continues, when the means of supporting it ceases; and finally ruins them. A just punishment for their having wantonly and unfeelingly ruined many honest, innocent traders, and their families," &c.

Again, in another letter to Mr. Hartley, the Doctor observes.

"I do not wish to see a new Barbary rising in America, and our long extended coasts occupied by piratical states. I fear lest our privateering success the two last wars should already have given our people too strong a relish for that most mischievous kind of gaining mixed with blood."

We have not been able to lay our hands immediately upon Dr. Franklin's celebrated letter to Mr. Vaughan on the subject of the criminal law and privateering, but we should think it difficult to add much to the strength of the above extracts. They accord with the feelings and opinions of all honorable and upright men in every country in every age since civilization was introduced, and we do most sincerely and ardently hope that the day is not distant, when men engaged in such pursuits as the slave trade and privateering will not be admitted into genteel society, but be pointed at by the finger of scorn wherever they may venture to show themselves by day light in our streets. Children should be taught to despise such men, and to look upon their conduct with disgust and horror. Parents cannot begin too soon to instil into their minds a detestation of vice.

A PROPER MORTIFICATION.

Dr. Johnson once speaking of Richardson, author of Clarissa, said, "that man is not satisfied with gliding smoothly and triumphantly down the stream of time unless he feels the splashing of the water at every stroke of the oars." This remark is in a degree exemplified by the following circumstance.

An English gentleman, on his return from making the tour, was engaged to dine with a man of rank, and Richardson was to be of the party. It so happened, that the author and traveller were the first visitors, and being left together in the drawing room, the tourist told Richardson he was happy in an opportunity of paying his respects to the author of Sir Charles Grandison, "for sir," added he, "at Paris, at the Hague, and indeed at every place through which I have passed in my tour, I have met with your book; it is translated into several languages, and is every where admired." Richardson preserved the most profound silence, affected not to notice the information, and made not any, not the least return to the compliments—but when all the company were assembled at dinner, he watched his opportunity, and addressed his companion with—"Sir, I think you were saying something of Sir Charles Grandison's reception at Paris." No, Sir, replied the gentleman, "I really do not remember ever to have heard it mentioned."

Port of Norfolk, October 13.

Schnr. Amanda, Gardiner, from Baltimore, bound to Rio Janeiro, with a cargo of flour, out 25 days—put back in distress, entirely dismasted, and with the loss of foresail, mainsail, flying gib, some of her light sails, quarter and waist boards, &c. stove in, and boat and camboose washed over board.—Experienced a severe gale from NE to SE on the 26th and 27th ult. in lat. 33, long. 54, which lasted 48 hours, during which the vessel capsized, was 5 hours on her beam ends, with her mast-heads in the water, when the hatches burst open, the vessel filled, and a number of barrels of flour washed out the fore hold. At the moment of capsizing, Mr. Sever, of Philadelphia, the supercargo was washed overboard and lost, by a heavy sea, which made a fair breach over the schooner. The crew were lashed for 5 hours to the forechains, when on cutting away the lanyards of the weather rigging, the masts went by the board; the vessel immediately righted, they gained the deck, and lashed themselves to the stump of the foremast and staunchings forward, the sea still breaking over the vessel. They continued lashed to the wreck from Sunday at 6 A M to about the same hour on Monday, having nothing to eat or drink, and no sleep. At 6 A M, on Monday, 28th the gale moderated. On the 29th spoke British brig Robert, Baxter, from St. John's, (N. B.) bound to Barbados, who supplied them with 90 gallons of water, 3 barrels of bread, and several other necessary articles. Oct 7th lat. 35 35, long. 68, spoke ship Greybound, West, from St. Domingo bound to New-York, 10 days out, who furnished them with a com, ass and about 40 gallons of water.

To the Public.

SOME time in June, or the first of July, as I came from a barbecue at Slash creek, it being late before I could get across the ferry (it was about 12 o'clock,) and going through town, I passed through Christ Church alley. It was very dark, and I tho't of what the poet Shakspeare said, as follows:
It is now the very witching time of night,
When church yard yawns, and hell itself
Breathes forth destruction to the world!
Just as I tho't of this, I discovered something very white; and as I had heard in former times that the church alley was haunted, I was determined to see what it was. I called to it several times, but got no answer. I set my fiddle against the fence, and searched for some brick bats, which I found and threw them at this ghost. Valuable Land for Sale.

HAVING more land in the tract on which I reside than I can farm to advantage, I will expose to public sale, on the 5th day of NOVEMBER next, if fair, if not the next fair day, eight hundred acres, divided into lots of two hundred acres: each lot has seventy acres in wood;—of the cleared land one hundred and fifty acres are in clover, and two hundred in rye and wheat. This land is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and is bounded north and east by Accotink creek, which separates the lower part of it from Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price can be had for grain.—It is as fertile as any land in the county, and as susceptible of improvement, by clover and plaster, as auy I have seen. Persons wishing to view it will call on the subscriber, living at Cedar Grove, one mile below Janney's mill.

The terms will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, and the balance in two equal annual payments. The sale will take place at 12 o'clock, on the premises.
EDGAR McCARTY.
Fairfax co. Va. October 6

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

Oct 6 FRANCIS ADAMS, Jr.

Land for Sale

THE subscriber offers for sale a tract of 80 acres of land, on the Colchester road, five miles from Alexandria, adjoining the lands of Haywood Foote and Dennis Johnston. The greater part of this tract is fine meadow land, abundantly supplied with water. Also one other tract of 261 acres, on the Ravensworth road, about 6 miles from Alexandria, and one mile from the first mentioned tract, adjoining land of Thos. Janney and Mr. M'Pherson: the greater part of this tract is in wood, the soil good and highly susceptible of improvement from the use of plaster. If these lands are not sold before the first of January next, they will then be for rent.
CHARLES SIMMS.
June 18 ws

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

For Sale,

A valuable Farm in Jefferson County.

BY virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Chancery for the Fredericksburg District in Virginia, in a suit wherein the Executors of Gen. George Washington were complainants; and Gerard Alexander, Thomas L. Alexander, (by Ludwell Lee, his appointed guardian) Ludwell Lee, R'd. H. L. Washington, John A. Washington, Bushrod C. Washington, and Mary Lee Washington, were defendants, will be exposed to sale to the highest bidder on the premises, on FRIDAY the 20th day of NOVEMBER next, all that tract of land lying in Jefferson County, Virginia, on Bullskin, commonly called Rockhall, containing 540 acres, now in the occupation of John Saunders.

The above tract of land lies about sixteen miles from Winchester, and about six from Charlestown, on the main road leading from Winchester to Baltimore, the city of Washington and Alexandria. It is well adapted to plaster and clover, and is in quality little inferior, if at all, to any farm in that fertile valley. The improvements on it are a large two story frame dwelling house, a barn and other necessary out houses.—The water is limestone and of excellent quality.

The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money, and the balance to be paid with interest, in one, two and three annual instalments, to be secured by a deed of trust on the property.

Auction & Commission Store.

NATHL. P. BIXBY & CO. respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they have taken that large and commodious store formerly occupied by the late Mr. Thomas Robinson, nearly opposite the Union Bank, Bridge-st. where they will transact all kinds of business in the Auction and Commission line; and as they are determined to give their exclusive attention to that business alone, those gentlemen who are disposed to employ them, have the best guarantee that they will be fairly dealt by. They flatter themselves that a punctual, diligent, and correct attention, together with their general knowledge of business, will secure to them at least an equal share of public patronage. Their intention is to avoid, as much as possible, retailing goods at auction. They are now prepared to receive goods of every description, to sell at public or private sale, and will attend to sales of property at any place within the town.

Gone to the Southward or Westward,

A YELLOW WOMAN, called Celia Detcher, in the 23d year of her age, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high—marks like moles on the right side of her face, which, with several letters on her left arm, were made with india ink. She is about four months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves, about two week ago, by a man of the name of Basset. It is supposed they have gone to the westward: Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempts be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communicate such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.

PROPOSALS,

By Gideon Fairman, John Binns and Charles S. Parker,

TO PUBLISH

A Splendid Edition of

Washington's Farewell Address,

To the People of the United States.

THE world has seen enough of warriors and of Heroes—enough of Statesmen—of men who have guided Armies in the field, or dictated as Sages in the Cabinet, for the exclusive purpose of Ambition. History from its earliest page to the present day, has offered to our contemplation, only ONE WASHINGTON, but ONE MAN, whose dangers in war, and labors in in peace, were undertaken and supported with a single eye, to the benefit of his country; whose wonderful and honorable success, was the plain result of wisdom in design, and valour in execution; whom danger never appalled, nor defeat depressed; who, persevering in the justice of his cause, wooed Victory till he won her: who covetted no reward but the well earned approbation of those whose interest he lived to promote: who renounced all public honors, when they ceased to be the necessary instruments of good to the people, whose gratitude conferred them: who superior to all Monarchs, was content to be called the American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss, by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of General Washington is the condensed result of long experienced, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings:—the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free from foreign attachments—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmanship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and a, propriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address: & when it shall be compleated, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by MR. AMIES. The INK shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN: and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splended edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splended Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A "Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.
